

Online horse betting doesn't need to be so nerve-wracking. There are a handful of websites that have been online for so long and have processed so many bets that you trust them just as much as you would placing a bet at the counter of horse betting.

Citibet is a betting website in Malaysia which focuses specially on horse betting. The website also happen to be one of the most trusted and it is easy to access, there aren't many distractions and punters can see the results of the game that they want to see right on the front page of the website.

The website is loaded with handicapping tips, past results, a large handicapping guide. Its bets are listed for free and you can bet on the same horses and same races if you wish. You can even cancel your wagers before the race if you don't like the odds or you change your mind.

Compare to other online horse racing betting website, Citibet seems to impress punters through its game. The amazing experience with this website made thousands of punters come back for more.

Citibet offers its punters the possibility to win easy money in an instant. It covers more than 100 tracks from around the world with all the same wagers that you could place in person at the track. Pick your race, see the details and place your bet. In fact, all bets you place are pooled with the wagers placed by the people actually at the track and you get paid full track odds on all winning wagers. Nicely done!

You don't have to bet at the PC or track to place your bets. If you have a smartphone or tablet and a connection to the internet, visit the website for the mobile-friendly website. The tracks and wagers are displayed a little differently at the mobile site to make it easier to navigate, choose tracks and structure your bets.

If you have any interest in online horse betting, Citibet should be on your shortlist of sites to bet today. Bets are accepted online at the website.
