

Horse racing is another sport currently benefitting from the raft of enhanced offer deals provided by the bookmakers. When looking for betting sites for horse racing, you can see which one guarantee the best prices and will either match or better the starting price if the odds are greater than their own.

The interest in horse racing has grown exponentially in Malaysia and Singapore allowing bettors to place their stake on a minimum bet with the possibility of a high reward. Not only is the system among the most favorable and popular because of its betting system, but is also an exciting platform.

Citibet are one of the leading Asian betting brands and offers you a great way to enjoy making some fun bets on horse racing. Citibet horse racing coverage is excellent, featuring events in Malaysia and beyond as well as international races. Horse racing is an important part of the sports offered by this bookmaker.

The company offers the best price guaranteed on all local and international races. It also allows you to place your bets on a high stake horse race on a global level. This means that you can learn about any of the events that are held through the year and will not be restricted to specific countries. There's also live streaming plus the chance to watch the biggest Malaysia races on mobile device.

The site initially was the easiest bookmaker to navigate, having said that if you know the course and time of the race that your horse running in, it's simple enough.

Citibet is fully usable via mobile and has been designed using the latest technology to ensure a strong horse racing or greyhound betting experience, crucial for in-play mobile bettors. That said, the site is graphic heavy, so it's worth testing via your device before making it your favourite. High-quality phones or tablets should deliver optimal speed and performance.

Once you are ready to start placing your bets, simply setup an online account from which you can transfer money and receive any payouts. Betting banks can be funded via MasterCard, Visa, Neteller, Skrill, with withdrawals via the same methods. Horse racing bettors are backed up by 24/7 support via live chat and email.