

Going to the racecourse and playing at the race site is a unique experience. You can do this activity via your mobile device.

Experiencing the thrill of the race, walking through the paddock to see the horses and feeling the adrenaline of seeing our horse come out of the box and cross the finish line in first position is something we should experience at least once in our life.

But if you can't go to the racecourse, you always have the option to bet online on horse races. Because practically all sportsbooks operating in Malaysia offer us bet on horses

At a racetrack, several races take place in one day, so when it comes to betting, you need to know which competition you want to bet on. It is customary to bet on racecourses in the UK, the US, Saudi Arabia, Australia and Singapore or Malaysia, where CITIbet site offers us best odds.

The horse racing is one of the most important types of bets placed in Malaysia and fully legalised by the government.

One of the main features of horse racing is the fact that the races are always streamed online so that punters around the world can follow the races in real time while betting.

Here at CITIbet, as a punter you are allowed to watch live horse racing betting via your mobile device. It's amazing, right?

So, if you ask where to bet on horses? Then CITIbet is the best answer to you who loves to place horse racing betting anytime and anywhere.

In addition, once you've opened a horse racing betting account with Citibet, you will see some free bonuses after making a payment at this popular betting site.
